Single Equality Scheme

Purpose of Scheme

This scheme outlines how Writtle University College ensures and promotes equality and diversity in all of its work. It sets out how the University College works to eliminate discrimination and promote good relations between people of different groups. It also sets out the responsibilities of staff, students and others.

Scheme Statement

Diversity at Writtle University College means recognising that everyone is different, respecting and encouraging these differences and valuing the benefits diversity brings. The College believes Equality and Diversity is central to achieving the goals set out in the University College's Strategic Plan and to fulfil its Mission statement.

Complies with all current equalities and data protection legislation in employment and provision of teaching and services, including:

Special Educational Needs and Disability Act 2001
Human Rights Act 1998
Data Protection Act 1998
Equality Act 2010

The University College will use the information you provide on this form as follows:

1. Personal Details

All personal details will be held on a database and used to process your application. Personal details may also be disclosed to the Local Education Authority, Awarding Bodies, Funding Councils, Student Loan Company, HESA and if you are under 18 years of age, to your parents/guardian. In signing this application, you consent to us holding and processing certain information in accordance with the principles set out in the Data Protection Act 1998 with which we fully abide and comply.

2. HESA

Some information on this form and other information held by the University College about you will be sent to the Higher Education Statistics Agency (HESA). Your record will be added to a database which will be passed to the central government departments and agencies and devolved administrations which require it to enable them to carry out their statutory functions under the Education Acts. It will also be used in anonymised form for statistical analysis by HESA and the above bodies resulting in publication and release of data to other approved non-statutory users. These may include academic researchers and commercial bodies.

You may wish to note that your contact details will not be made available to HESA, your name will not be used or included in its statistical analysis and precautions are taken to minimise the risk that you will be able to be identified from the data. Neither statutory nor non-statutory users of the HESA data will be able to use the data to contact you.

Under the Data Protection Act 1998 you have the right to a copy of the data held about you by HESA, for a small fee. If you have any concerns about, or objections to, the use of data for these purposes, please contact HESA at www.hesa.ac.uk, or by writing to 18 Royal Crescent, Cheltenham, GL50 3DA.

3. Referral

Occasionally, it may be useful to refer you to another provider of information, advice or guidance in order to help you make progress with learning or work goals. If this is the case, we will agree with you what happens on an individual basis. We will not release information about you to such a third party without your permission in each case.

4. Addresses

Student addresses are held and used for internal purposes only and will not be disclosed to anyone other than University College staff, who may only use the information for official purposes. The only exception is if disclosure is required by law, e.g. to the Police or the Funding Bodies or their agents, or in the event of a real emergency.

5. Criminal Convictions

A motoring offence for which you received a fine or three penalty points or a spent conviction (as defined by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974) should not be disclosed.

If you answer 'Yes' to this question, your application for admission to the University College will be referred to the Applications Committee. All information disclosed to the Applications Committee will be considered confidential and held and processed in accordance with the requirements of the Data Protection Act 1998.

6. Ethnic Origin

The ethnic origin data will be used by the University College for analysis in accordance with the University College's Equal Opportunities and Racial Equality Policies, and will be passed to HESA, the Higher Education Funding Council for England (HEFCE), EFA and the SFA.

7. Disability/Special Needs/Medical Conditions/Mental Health Difficulty

Any information relating to any individual student's medical history, mental health difficulty and/or disabilities will be regarded as confidential. The University College policy is to allow for necessary disclosure to those who need to know for teaching and assessment purposes and for reasons of health and safety. This information is also passed to HESA, HEFCE, EFA and the SFA.

8. Information on other University College courses/events

We may contact you from time to time with information on other courses/events run by the University College which we feel may be of interest to you. If you do not wish to receive such information please tick this box.

9. More details and how to access your information

If you would like further information about the above, or have any concerns about, or objections to, the use of your data please contact the University College Secretary at the address below.

You have right of access to your personal records held by the University College. Requests should be made in writing to The University College Secretary, Writtle University College, Chelmsford, Essex CM13RR. The University College reserves the right to charge a small fee (maximum £10.00) to cover administrative costs, which must be received before the information is released.
