

Writtle University College Recruitment ID Document List

All applicants who are successful after interview are offered employment subject to required Safeguarding checks. Our safeguarding checks include:

- A List 99 check
- A Criminal Records Bureau (CRB) check

We undertake safeguarding checks in order to enable safe recruitment decisions to ensure the safety of our Students and our workforce.

What is a List 99?

An initial safeguarding check carried out prior to offer and online which provides a background check showing individuals who are barred from working with children by the Department of Education and Skills (DfES)

What is a CRB Check?

This identifies candidates who may be unsuitable for certain work, especially work that involves children or vulnerable adults. A CRB check will disclose any relevant and proportionate information held by the local police forces along with a check of the new Children and or Vulnerable Adults barred lists.

The CRB application which must be completed by the individual and submitted promptly. It is College preference that an official response is received prior to any individual commencing work however College policy does allow for the assessment of risk by the line manager in circumstances where there is an important business requirement for the role holder to start as a matter of urgency.

To allow us to process the required CRB check quickly as part of our Recruitment Policy and Procedure we ask you bring three forms of ID with you at interview to confirm your identity. This must include at least one document from Group 1 below and at least two from Group 2
